UK heatwave means there are hol bargains here and abroad

BY EMILY RETTER

YOUR summer break could be about to get a hol lot cheaper, thanks to the unexpected UK heatwave.

It means there are some serious savings to be had.

As we reported yesterday, Travel firms are slashing prices on foreign holidays as Britons delay booking trips away while they enjoy the sunshine here. But the reductions are not restricted to breaks out of the country. There are some generous savings to be made in the UK, too, for those who choose to enjoy a little fun in the sun, British style.

Here we round up the best staycations and vacations. It's a better way to getaway!

STAYCATIONS

Butlin's Bonanza: There's a whopping 50% off a Butlin's break if you book before midnight on Tuesday.

A family of four can enjoy three nights at any of Butlin's seaside resorts (Minehead, Bognor Regis and Skegness) from £129pp, or a four-night break from £179pp (based on Silver self-catering).

All including shows from the likes of Stephen Mulhern and Diversity (depending upon dates).

Digi detox: Reduced from £477 to £411 a week from July 27, and August 3 and 17, the Rock View Shepherd's Hut Cornish woodland retreat for couples, near Gunnislake, is perfect for those longing for peace and quiet. Put down the smartphone and pack a book as there's no wi-fi or TV here. ■ helpfulholidays.com or call 01647 433593.

Happy campers: Save 20% on camping pods in Littondale Country and Leisure Park, North Yorkshire, on stays between now and January 3, 2019. A seven-night stay for up to four people starts at £439.20, down from £549.

There's an adventure playground for the children and stunning walks to local pubs.
